Nature Reservation area: Zellhof lies in the middle of a nature reservation area. Therefore campfires have to be at least 15 cm above ground level. No rain ditches (dams are more useful) and no trash pits or drainage of waste water. Outside the campsite: please stay on the walking paths and don't walk through high grass.

Legislation: The youth protection legislation of the state of Salzburg, and the Austrian nature protection legislation apply to all Zellhof participants. The text of these legislations are available at the kiosk. Please read the accompanying camp rules!

Dogs: Dogs are not allowed at Pfadfinderdorf Zellhof.

Waste and cleaning: The communal facilities (toilets, washing rooms and paths) are cleaned by the groups each day on a rotation basis. For this purpose groups need to bring their own cleaning materials (buckets and brooms are available). Please separate trash at your own camp site and avoid unnecessary packaging material, Zellhof has its own recycling centre.

Kiosk: Please don't bring any alcohol onto the site. Alcohol-free drinks, beer and wine are available at the kiosk. Hard liquor such as whiskey, vodka, etc... are not permitted at Zellhof.

Houses: People staying in the houses should each bring a sheet and sleeping bag.

Wood: There is plenty of construction wood of different sizes available for building (please don't cut the poles). Fire wood is included in the price.

Swimming- and water activities:
The Grabensee lake lies in a nature reserve and is a private bathing lake. Zellhof has the permission to use the lake from 07:00 to 20:00. Every group needs to have a swimming supervisor for its own members. Please follow the bathing and boat rules, which are available at the kiosk. Surfing, sailing and (improvised) rafts are not permitted at the Grabensee.

The Pfadfinderdorf Zellhof is a place where international meetings are made easy. Collective international activities are frequently organized by interested groups. All group leaders are invited to a camp meeting on Mondays on 21:00, where all initiatives for international activities can be discussed and prepared. The Wednesday evening has emerged as most prominent time for international activities. The Zellhof Team will help you with any needs you might have for this.

Program in the immediate area:

Mattsee, cheese factory, mini golf, tennis, boat rental, beautiful hikes, nature trails, pipe factory, cycling roads, horse riding, etc...

Excursions: Salzburg city, Hohensalzburg castle, Hellbrunn palace with water games and zoo, natural history exhibition, museums, swimming pool, birthplace of Mozart,....
Großglockner (highest mountain in Austria), Salzkammergut lake district, mountain hikes, Kaprun with summer skiing and alpine power-plant, Salzbergwerk, Tropfstein cave, ice caves, gorges, Silent Night chapel in Oberndorf, Vienna, Munich,.....

Booking: Your booking is fixed when the dates are confirmed and the deposit has arrived in our bank account. The required deposit of 25% of the booking is not refundable should you cancel your visit. Please pay the balance in cash during your stay.

The Zellhof Team:

The Zellhof Team consists of volunteer scouts from many different countries. We are happy to give you any information you need and help you to make your camp a success - you can always find us at the kiosk.
