Nature Reserve: Zellhof lies in the middle of a nature reserve. Therefore campfires have to be at least 15 cm above ground level. No rain ditches (dams are more useful) and no trash pits or drainage of waste water. Outside the campsite: please stay on the paths and don't walk through high grass.

Legislation: The youth protection legislation of the state of Salzburg, and the Austrian nature protection legislation apply to all camp participants. The text of these legislations are available at the kiosk. Please read the accompanying camp rules!

Dogs: Dogs are not allowed at Pfadfinderdorf Zellhof.

Waste and cleaning: The communal facilities (toilets, washing rooms and paths) are cleaned by the groups each day on a rotation basis. For this purpose groups need to bring their own cleaning materials (buckets and brooms are available). Please separate trash at your own camp site and avoid unnecessary packaging material. Zellhof has its own recycling centre.

Kiosk: Please don't bring any alcohol onto the site. Soft drinks, beer and wine are available at the kiosk. Hard liquor such as whiskey, vodka, etc. are not permitted at Zellhof.

Houses: Please bring a sheet and sleeping bag.

Wood: There is plenty of construction wood of different sizes available for building (please don't cut the poles). Fire wood is included in the price.

Swimming- an water activities: The Grabensee lake lies in a nature reserve and is a private bathing lake. Zellhof has the permission to use the lake from 07:00 to 20:00. Every group needs to have a swimming supervisor for its own members. Please follow the bathing and boat rules, which are available at the kiosk. Surfing, sailing and rafts are not permitted at the Grabensee.
